4-H EXHIBIT

The 4-H exhibit was built by the Exhibits Section, U. S. Department of Agriculture. By photographic enlargements carrying appropriate legends, the display portrayed the purposes, methods, and results of the 4-H Clubs. A large cut-out was used to show the cooperative feature of the organization of Federal, State, and local governments for carrying on the 4-H Club program. The extent of 4-H Club membership was illustrated by a large map of the United States showing the 1938 membership by States. Live chicks were displayed in a home-made lamp brooder which is in common use among 4-H poultry-club members throughout the United States. A moving procession of 4-H members in uniform called attention to the fact that there are 1,286,000 club members in the United States and that every tenth member is a 4-H poultry-club member. Large cut-outs of club members in uniform added to the attractiveness of the display. Flood lights were used to excellent advantage. The exhibit occupied 57 feet of wall space in the Hall of Youth.

ENTERTAINMENT BY 4-H GROUPS

The 60-piece 4-H Club band from Clinton County, Ohio, under the management of W. L. Bluck, county agricultural agent, presented a series of concerts in the Hall of Youth on Saturday, July 29. The band traveled by bus from Wilmington, the county seat.

On Monday, July 31, the 35-piece 4-H Club band from Franklin County, Ohio, gave a series of concerts in the Hall of Youth. County agent J. E. Whonsetler arranged for the band to come to Cleveland.

The 40-piece Calhoun County, Mich., 4-H Club orchestra played a series of concerts on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 1 and 2, in the Hall of Youth. This orchestra was directed by Mrs. Ralph Helm, wife of the county agricultural agent. The orchestra traveled by bus from Marshall to Detroit and by boat from Detroit to Cleveland.

The Massachusetts consumer demonstration team (Marjorie Goodhind and Jean Krofsky) presented their demonstration on Tuesday, August 1, at the Consumers' Section of the Popular Program in the Auditorium. Their demonstration, a typical 4-H foods demonstration, was entitled "Seek health - save time - save money - serve eggs".

4-H RADIO

4-H Club members and leaders presented several radio broadcasts during the Poultry Congress. On Saturday, July 29, Monday, July 31, and Tuesday, August 1, the broadcast was a part of the National Farm and Home Hour. On Sunday, July 30, one broadcast was a part of the Columbia Farm

Journal of the Air, while another went out over the Mutual Broadcasting System. Seventeen 4-H members and leaders, representing 10 States, were scheduled to participate in these radio programs.

4-H PUBLICITY

Daily news releases relative to the 4-H program were submitted to the Information and Publicity Office of the Poultry Congress. These releases were sent to daily papers throughout the country.

College extension editors were provided with direct news releases regarding the 4-H program including the results of the demonstration and judging activities.

Assistance was given to the representatives of various farm papers and magazines in the way of obtaining photographs and stories with reference to the 4-H program.

A photographer from the U. S. Department of Agriculture obtained photographs for office records.

YOUTH CAMP

4-H members and leaders were quartered at the Cuyahoga County Fair Grounds in Berea. The girls and the women leaders were in the dormitories at Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea. Breakfast was served at the camp. Bus transportation was provided to and from the camp.

4-H REGISTRATION

Leaders and members registered at the office in the Hall of Youth. Each leader and member who participated in the 4-H program was given a metal badge indicating his or her participation. All other 4-H members who registered were presented with a Youth Program button. A total of 38 States was represented in the 4-H registration.
